Q and A on Social Security

Each month, the Social Security Administration provides some common questions and answers that may apply to you or your family. If you have any questions you would like to be answered, call the Social Security Office at 1-800-772-1213.

Q

Now that my own kids are grown, I plan to start working full time as a babysitter. Can I get Social Security coverage for work in another person's household?

A

Yes. If you are a household worker, your wages are covered under Social Security as long as you earn $1,500 or more in a calendar year (including cash for transportation expenses) unless you were under age 18 during any part of the year and household work is not your main job. Household workers include babysitters, maids, cooks, laundry workers, butlers, gardeners, chauffeurs, people who do housekeeping or repair work or anyone employed in or around someone else's home. To learn more, visit our website at www.socialsecurity.gov or call us toll-free at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778).
