The DOWNTOWNER

Randy's Ramblings...

Volume XI, Issue 8

Looking Back...

As school is well underway at Lincoln Elementary, we are starting to look back... where Lincoln has been and where it is going. Since Lincoln has been our "neighborhood school" for 41 years, it's appropriate for us to celebrate the school. Over the next few months, The Downtowner will feature tid-bits about the past and the future of Lincoln as it transitions from our neighborhood elementary school into THE elementary technology magnet school for the entire country. Below is the first of those "Did you know..." pieces.

A committee has been formed and is planning activities throughout the year to celebrate (as Mrs. Yates, the new principal, has coined...) "honoring the past and welcoming the future." These activities include a scrapbook, mementos throughout the year, commemorative art for sale and a year-end celebration.

Here is where we need your help! Send in your stories, special moments and thoughts about Lincoln over the years. If you had children attend there, please ask them to as well. Your contributions will be used in a special way. These can be mailed or dropped off to: LCNFC, 1039 Sycamore Street, Columbus, IN 47201.

Or send an e-mail to: info@lcnfc.org. Or, give us a call at 379.1630!

Most of all, help us celebrate what wonderful things have happened inside those walls... the knowledge which has been lovingly taught, the minds which have been shaped and the lives who were forever changed thanks to the staff, students and neighbors of Lincoln Elementary.

~ Randy Allman

Did You Know?

When the "new" Lincoln opened in 1967, there were 278 students enrolled. Lincoln was one of 21 elementary schools!

TODAY, Lincoln's enrollment is 173 and is one of 11 elementary schools!
